Dear Sir:

I have given of 26 - inch with rubbing enclosed - one of them I have
+ it cost less than the price named - The other is a little high though desirable - I believe I will let it along for the present. I am greatly obliged for your attention.

Respectfully Yours,

Your favor of 13th inst. with photo is duly recd. besides those listed, you sent a crown of Stair-lane Aug. of Ireland $1.75 & four small coins $1.80. All these I have kept. I have kept all the pieces sent except Edward the Confessor $2.25 & Oak Tree 2<sup>d</sup> $2.75, which I return herewith.
Some of those I kept, I did not specially want but took them, trusting to work them off rather than send them back - Some I do return are a little too high priced for me & I do not specially want them.
Sub. of bill sent $53. - Add extra pieces $3.55 = $56.55 Less pieces ret'd. $5. = $51.55 - As I have taken the extra pieces I take the liberty of deducting the full discount of $3.
& have no doubt it will be satisfactory = $48.55

(Bill at rate 9th inst. 1.59 $50.44 on which I enclose ck. The scrub photo you got for me were sublimely them, usual. As for the cabinet - I am a good roomy serviceable one & not an elegant piece of furniture. My collection is not such a local reputation that I do not dare to keep it in the house & my cabinet has to stand in the back room.

I send one & will be glad to know what you have. I have been writing to me about one - Your very truly, Wm. P. H. & A. Chapman

I have an order of 14th just arrived accomplishing per Page. You must not say anything just now to tempt me to have a look a little to your list. I want to have a nice price go out of my hands, so I keep the list.
You say nothing about discount on this lot, or as you always pay the express charges, I suppose you forgot it this time so I deduct the 20% & send my bill you, $33.55.
I have just recd. your author catalogue & am much pleased to get it - Looking over it, I feel discouraged to see how little you have done - how little I ever can do - I don't think I can bid on this - What is the price you want on your express page? It seems to be a very low price, with a German inscription but the ink is poor - I think I have now got a lot of all the likely all the American, since within my reach.

Yours Truly

Sir

I have your kind letter of 18th inst. I have to ride my hobby with some degree of reason & it feels like a good deal for me to put $100. into such a sand pit & I cannot afford it all the time - Then, I have for a mere amateur, a pretty large collection - Then, I have crossed my sixty line & some of these days, some one will be making ducks & drakes of my cherished pieces.
I had better go slow. I got from you, at a higher price than you quote now, the 5 & 1 piece piece of the Congo, or I should have taken the sett. What kind of pieces are in the collection you have got! There do not work any - I did get some fine pieces in the last lot & I take your word for it that they are cheap - I cannot tell - They please me much - With thanks for all courtesy, I am

Yours Truly

I certainly meant to have answered your kind note from the seaside. Besides being very busy, I have had the house full of visitors for some weeks & hardly know when I am & my correspondence has got neglected. Today, I have your favor of 11th inst. with Congo coins for which I thank you & enclose No. 71.26 to balance a/c.

I had intended to let you send me a small lot as offered. I find I am unexpectedly called on to spend $100. for something else & I always mean to take my pleasure with some degree of moderation & I cannot lift the embargo. Do not be afraid of my getting old. I feel as young as anybody & enjoy every thing. Still, the years will warn me that my golden rings must some day come to an end. I am even making money out of my collection.

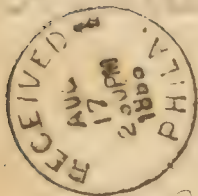

that is a piece of the question that I never take. No reasonable or unreasonable price ever tempts me to part with a coin, unless I know just how I could replace it.
I never sold a piece unless it was a duplicate. When a coin once becomes mine, it is simply beyond all price & I would as soon think of selling one of my children.
If I ever get time, I will send you a memorandum of the few U. S. pieces I have, though I have little chance of getting them. Prices are so high for them. And by the way, there is a dealer in New York that undertakes to buy U. S. pieces. Of course everything depends on condition, but he seems to be special in U. S.
I have done very little with him. I do not change easily. If you pick up any pieces that you think I would specially like, you may let me know of them by name, but do not send them

Yours Very Truly

Robert L. Taylor

Dear Sirs:

I have your P.C. of 22d. inst.

I have parted with my spare copies of the Book. I shall write to Mr. Ireland, & ask him to send you a copy. There is only one style of binding, but I think you will find it both neat and serviceable. The retail price is $1. No doubt, Mr. Ireland will allow the usual discount. I need hardly say that I will take it very kind if you can assist me in putting it on the market. I have no circulars. Mr. Ireland has a few getting some printed. The Church papers generally have published notices of it. Also, several of the secular papers. The "All-American" has been very flattering. I rather expect that the "All-American" will be a paragraph in the next issue of the "All-American". It is a very little volume, and if I can believe the good part that is written to me, it is quite readable. Please do the best you can for me. I will try to be grateful. Though gratitude is almost a forgotten virtue.

Very Truly Yours

Robt. Smith

I find one more stray copy of the Book & send it to you.

Dear Sirs:

I have your favor of 23d inst. I thank you for still remembering me. I have not exactly given up coins. I am too old to put much money into them now. Occasionally a piece falls into my hands. Tokens I work at more than collect them. The Presb'n. Board of Publ'r. has just issued a new edition of my "Story of the Token." Send some of your customers to buy it. If I were still in the field, I would find ~~find~~ your Catalogue, a very tempting one. The Cornwall, Canadian, Token is not at all scarce. I have it. The Coldingham Token is from the Scottish Border. I think I have it. I cannot be sure without taking some trouble. More than it is worth. To show my good will, and by way of thanks for sending the list, I will give you 75 cents for it.

Very Truly Yours,

Robert Shields
